The name of this organization shall be the Red Eye Yacht Club II, Inc., hereinafter called "REYC" or the "CLUB".

Section 2

The Colors of the CLUB shall be red, white and blue.

Section 3

The burgee shall be triangular in shape and consist of three (3) colors: red, white and blue with the outline of an eye in blue with a red pupil on a white background. Any drawing or reproduction of the eye without the triangular outline being shown is prohibited.

ARTICLE II (Object)

The object of this organization shall be to promote good fellowship, safe boating and courtesy, afloat and ashore, in accordance with the accepted and recognized customs on the water, and to maintain suitable facilities.

ARTICLE III (Officers and types of Members)

Section 1

OFFICERS: The officers of the CLUB shall be Commodore, Vice Commodore, Rear Commodore, Fleet Captain, Recording Secretary, Corresponding Secretary, and Treasurer. The Commodore, with the approval of the membership, may appoint other officers. The first four (4) officers shall be the Flag Officers. All officers, at the time of their election or appointment, and during their term of office, must be regular members of the CLUB in good standing.

Section 2

The CLUB recognizes three types of members — primary, secondary, and social.

PRIMARY REGULAR MEMBERS: A primary regular member is one having been approved by the membership and who is complying with all monetary and other obligations as defined in the Constitution and By-Laws.

SECONDARY REGULAR MEMBERS: A secondary regular member is one who is the spouse or significant other of a primary regular member who has applied for membership and has paid the annual membership fee.¹

SOCIAL MEMBERS: A social member is one that desires to be involved in the CLUB but is not interested in a slip. These members are obligated to attend REYC affairs and pay for chits like primary members. However, they are not obligated for work hours, are not able to vote on club issues and may not hold an office.

For the purposes of these By-Laws the term regular member shall refer to primary and secondary members unless stated otherwise.

Death of Primary Member:

Per the established by-laws, in the event of the death of a primary member, the secondary member shall be able to maintain the vessel in the assigned slip for three years.²

The secondary member shall now become the primary member. The secondary member shall retain their originally assigned position in the seniority listing. (The seniority number for the original primary member becomes vacant, all members below will move up on the list)

The new primary member shall be responsible for dues and all monetary obligations of a primary member effective with the start of the next calendar year.

Should the new primary member remarry, his/her spouse can become a secondary member, upon application and payment of the prevailing annual fee. This new secondary member will be assigned the next available number on the seniority list.

Divorce/Dissolution of Relationship:

The secondary member will be terminated unless that member is a current officer. If that is the case, it will be up to the member to determine whether he/she wishes to retain his/her office for the remainder of the calendar year or vacate the office. Should he/she elect to complete his/her term, no additional fees or monetary obligations will be imposed for the current year.

If the secondary member wishes to remain in REYC, he/she will be required to become an individual member (at his/her previously assigned seniority number). He/she must agree to pay the full dues (minus any secondary membership fees already paid for the year) and fulfill all additional monetary obligations.

Section 3

LIFETIME MEMBERS: A lifetime member is an honorary title awarded to past commodores and other distinguished members as approved by the CLUB membership, but is still required to meet all monetary and other obligations as defined in the Constitution and By-Laws.

Section 4

INACTIVE LIFETIME MEMBERS: An inactive lifetime member is an honorary title reserved for lifetime members who do not meet the monetary or other obligations covered in Article XVI of the Constitution and By-Laws. Said member may attend regular meetings and speak, if recognized by the Commodore, but shall not make a motion or be allowed to vote.

Section 5

If said member is in arrears for a period of more than sixty (60) days, he/she shall lose his/her membership and be billed for all applicable non-member fees, unless excused by the Board.
