

REYC General Membership Meeting Minutes May 2011

Commodore Jerry S. started the meeting by introducing the YCM Commodore Charlie Downs and P/C Faye. Commodore Charlie presented skunk awards to John C for "driving the old dingy down", and Jill Cashman got one for "What YCM Flag Cashman". Her burgee was found floating. It had something to do with YCM. The final clue was three gold crabs on it. Steve Rockel was awarded as "Elk River Neck Rockel" for navigational efforts for REYC (Wrong way Rockel). Past Commodore Ernie Molnar got a skunk award for "all you really need is charts Molnar". Commodore Faye thanked Commodore Jerry and REYC members for letting them present the awards.

Membership Ken Z: We are full there are no new applications and we have a slip for every boat. Please make sure your electric is on we will have a lot of boats in here next weekend.

Minutes from the last meeting read. Motion by Bob Carr to accept the minutes as read, second by Vera, all in favor.

Treasure Jill C. Passed out a profit and loss statement for the month of April. Expenses were workers comp insurance, which was $496.00, and telephone/cable/internet for $214.00 Others this month are liquor license was paid, Prices are up, repairs of piers, BG&E sort of high, heat oil $816.00 for April, and dumpster enclosure. On the income side, Spring Fling will show next month. That made over $1000.00 Opening right around the corner. Bills have been paid please come down and support the Bar and the events. This helps off set the extra expenses we incur. Motion to except the profit and loss statement pending audit made by Ernie, second by JJ, all in favor.
